Description of the context and purpose

Information covered

- [ ] Technical
- [ ] Commercial
- [ ] Financial
- [ ] Personal data
- [ ] Other information marked confidential

Commitments

1. Confidential information means all non-public information disclosed in connection with the purpose above, in writing, orally or by any other means, that is marked as confidential or is confidential by its nature.

2. The recipient keeps this information secret, protects it with at least reasonable care and no less than it applies to its own sensitive information, and uses it only for the purpose above.

3. It shares the information only with persons who need to know it and who are bound by confidentiality obligations at least as protective.

4. This does not cover information that is already public through no fault of the recipient, already known to it, lawfully received from a third party or independently developed. Disclosure required by law or an authority is permitted, after notifying the other party where possible.

5. On the other party's request or at the end of the relationship, the recipient returns or destroys the information and any copies, except those it must keep by law.

6. This agreement grants no licence or ownership right in the information. In case of breach, the injured party may seek any measure the law allows to stop the breach and remedy its consequences.
