Condition of the vehicle

- [ ] The seller states that, to their knowledge, the vehicle has not suffered a serious accident
- [ ] The vehicle is sold as is; the buyer has inspected and test-driven it
- [ ] A recent roadworthiness test or inspection report is attached

Known defects, major repairs and reservations

Documents and items handed over

- [ ] Registration document
- [ ] Roadworthiness test or inspection
- [ ] Service book and invoices
- [ ] All keys
- [ ] Transfer certificate or form

The buyer acknowledges receiving the vehicle and the items above. The seller states that they own the vehicle, free of any lien or claim to their knowledge.

The buyer takes over insurance and the change-of-ownership formalities from handover. The seller reports the sale to the authorities where the rules of their country require it.
